“Building Program” – 2 Kings 12

1. Why would Joash and his people choose to not completely remove the “high places”?
2. In what areas of life today might God’s people be unwilling to remove sin completely?
3. Why did the priest neglect the repairing of the house of God?
4. Why does it take so long to get anything done in the church?
5. What can cause God’s people today to not be willing to work together or to be arrogant toward one another?
6. How should Joash have responded other than using temple treasures as bribery?
7. How did Joash fail in his divinely-appointed duty as king? What did he do well? How does Jesus fulfill these requirements perfectly?
